CASALUSKEY HELD IN ONE THOUSAND DOLLARS BAIL.

Mary Gummta Makes Some Very Serious Charges Against Him. Meeting Tonight in the Interest of the Pave Promises to Be a Lively Affair—Drama Produced by the Keystone Literary and Dramatic Company—Movements of Well-Known Persons.

Joseph Casaluskay, of Throop, was held in $1,000 bail by Alderman Roberts last night. He is charged with attempt at criminal assault, forcible entry and carrying concealed weapons, by Mary Gummta, who at the hearing last night told a very damaging story about the accused.

She alleges that a short time ago she accused attended a party on Charles street, close to the house where the prosecutrix lives. During the night he opened the window of her bedroom and entering the apartment with drawn revolver in hand, threatened to kill her unless she submitted to him.

A FISHERMAN'S LUCK. Last evening in St. Mary's hall the Keystone Literary and Dramatic company produced "Fisherman's Luck," a comedy drama, in a most capable manner.

Campbell, David Maurice, known as "Uncle Duvy." W. A. Lynott, Silas Kidder, a stage struck. D. J. Cramer, Rev. George McArthur, J. P. CHARGES AGAINST BOTH. Antinous Rhudman and Frank Yurka were placed under $400 bail each by Alderman Roberts last evening on charges of aggravated assault and battery preferred by Mike Dinnier. The prosecutor alleged that the men beat him unmercifully without provocation. H. Dinnier also had Rhudman arrested on the charge of assault. Bail

ABOUT THE SIZE OF IT.

From the Washington Star. Russia wants peace—until the trans-Siberian railroad is completed. France wants disarmament—immediately after she has recovered Alsace-Lorraine. England favors disarmament—the land forces alone, her warships being, she explains, the harmless, necessary policemen to frighten off pirates from attacking her extensive commerce. The United States yearns for universal peace—but would not seem to desire to interfere with the completion of her new navy.

HAPPENINGS OF SOUTH SCRANTON

NEPTUNES PREPARING FOR A HOUSE WARMING.

Will Celebrate the Completion of the Repairs on Their Quarters—William Ross Taken to the Lackawanna Hospital—Was Injured Some Time Ago in the Scranton Axle Works—William Leyh, a Six-Year-Old Boy, Had His Collar Bone Dislocated.

The Neptune Engine company met in regular session last night. The executive committee in charge of the annual excursion of the pioneer company made a complete report of the success of the outing. The members were exceedingly pleased over the result of the affair.

A special committee was appointed to arrange for a fitting celebration to be held when the various improvements are completed, which are now under way to the company's quarters on Cedar avenue. It is intended that the event will be the greatest yet conducted by the company. Extensive preparations will be made for the occasion. The county and city officials will be included in the list of invited guests at the gathering.

The new team of horses for the horse carriage are expected to reach the horse house today, and a ten days' trial will be made. Active preparations are being made for a big turnout of the company on the parade and inspection of the fire and police department, Sept. 28. Last night's session adjourned to meet Monday night next.

TAKEN TO HOSPITAL.

An unusually large crowd congregated on Cedar avenue last night at the "drug store." The ambulance of the Lackawanna hospital dashed along the avenue. Patrolman Boland telephoned for the ambulance to convey to the hospital William Ross, who fell on the sidewalk at the drug store suffering from an accident received at the Scranton Axle works a month ago. Ross, who was employed at the works, was injured by a blow from a heavy hammer striking on the cap of his right knee. He was being treated by a physician on this side, but the injury developed to a more serious nature.

Ross left his boarding house on Cedar avenue and Elm street last night and was en route to a central city physician when he fell to the ground. Dr. Webb, of the hospital, made a quick examination of the injured man and he was removed to the hospital for treatment. Ross is a native of Pittsburgh, he having come to this city recently.

COLLAR BONE DISLOCATED.

William Leyh, the 6-year-old son of Adam Leyh, of Stone avenue, agent for the Lackawanna Brewing company, is suffering from dislocation of the right collar bone, caused by falling from his father's carriage in front of his home yesterday afternoon. The boy was out riding with his father, and when their home was reached the horse proceeded to trot and the boy was thrown from the carriage and his foot slipped. He was precipitated to the stone walk with much force, landing on his shoulder. The injury to the collar bone was not regarded as serious. Later in the day the boy suffered such pain that it was deemed best to call a physician. Dr. Kolb was sent for. An examination showed the true result of the fall. The dislocation was arranged.

SANG "OUR COUNTRY."

A Thrilling Scene in the Field Hospital at Guasimas. From "A Wounded Correspondent's Recollections of Guasimas," by Edward Marshall, in the September Scribner's. There is one incident of the day which shines out in my memory above all others now as I lie in a New York hospital writing. It occurred at the field hospital. A continual chorus of moans rose through the tree-branches overhead. The surgeons, with hands and bared arms dripping with blood, were straining every nerve to prepare the wounded for the journey down to Siboney. Behind me lay Captain McClintock with his lower leg-bones literally ground to powder. He bore the pain as gallantly as he had led his men, and that is saying much. I think Major Brodie was also there. It was a doleful group. Amputation and death stared its members in their gloomy faces. Suddenly a voice started softly, "My country, 'tis of thee, Sweet land of liberty, Of thee I sing."

Other voices took it up: "Land where my fathers died, Land of the Pilgrim's pride—" The quivering, quivering chorus, punctuated by groans, and made spasmodic by pain, trembled up from that little group of wounded Americans in the midst of the Cuban solitude—the pluckiest, most heartiest song that human beings ever sang.

There was one voice that did not quite keep up with the others. It was so weak that I did not hear it until all the rest had finished with the line, "Let Freedom ring."

Then halting, struggling, faint, it repeated slowly, "Land-of-the-Pilgrim's-pride, Let Freedom ring."

The last word was a woeeful cry. One more son had died as did the fathers.

The Lackawanna township schools will reopen this morning. The corps of teachers is practically the same as last year.

Frank Jennings, of Kingston, returned home yesterday after a few days' visit with relatives on Gilmore avenue.

The Minooka base ball association is a few coffers ahead of yesterday's game. Some of the enthusiasts who attended yesterday's contest became disgusted with the amateurish playing, and suggested to Manager Judge to put the uniforms on the market. The suggestion appears to be timely.

The Duke of Cornwall council, Young Men's Institute, is making arrangements for a grand ball on Oct. 19. Patrick Philbin, sr., of Minooka, is dangerously ill.

Our Annual Exhibit OF Autumn Dress Fabrics Opens on Tuesday, Sept. 6th, and Continues During the Balance of the Week.

No event of the entire year is surrounded with so much genuine interest as the first view of a coming season Dress Goods stock, and of course, the interest is enhanced according to the variety and extent of the display. That's why Globe Warehouse "Openings" always attract the fashionable element for miles around, and hold a recognized place above all similar events in North Eastern Pennsylvania.

A Word on Weaves and Shades

Common sense is the leading characteristic in the textile world this season. Generally speaking weaves are plain, and the colorings strictly in keeping with the more sombre days to come. True, there are extreme novelties for those who care for them, and a few striking effects in imported cloths, but the prevailing tendency is decidedly in favor of plain good fabrics, a quiet indistinct mixture which are much better adapted to
